Mantua, March 30, N. S.

HIS Excellency Count Brown having inveſted Guaſtalla, the Beſieged made a Shew as if they were reſolved to defend themſelves, and ſallied with 400 Men, but were repulſed by Col. Maguaire with his Waraſdins: And Count Brown having preſently after attacked the Head of the Bridge, and carried it with very little Loſs, the White Flag was immediately hung out, and the Garriſon ſurrendred Priſoners of War, without waiting for any Diſcharge of the Auſtrian Cannon. The Number of Priſoners brought hither from thence, amounts to 1766; amongſt whom are General Caraffa, two Colonels, and a great many other wounded Officers. During the Time of the Attack upon the Bridge, General Nadaſti fell upon 3000 of the Enemy, who were coming up to the Succour of the Town, killed 300 of them upon the Spot, and totally routed the reſt. The Auſtrian Army is in full March towards Parma, and the Van Guard is but three Italian Miles from that City. On Monday laſt Count Neillon ſet out for Vienna with nine Colours and one Standard taken at Guaſtalla.

Vienna, April 2. A Courier is juſt arrived from General Brown, with News that Guaſtalla had ſurrendered, and 2000 Men had been made Priſoners of War, with a Major General; while General Nadaſti had routed 3000 Men which were ſent to ſuccour the Place, and taken ſeveral Priſoners, with a General Officer, and killed above 400 Men, ſo that it is thought the Auſtrians have above 3000 Priſoners. General Bernclau has join'd Prince Lichtenſtein.

Berlin, April 5. It is ſaid that the heavy Artillery is to be removed from the Arſenal of this Place, where nothing is to be left but Field Pieces, and carried to Magdebourg, and other Towns of better Defence. Between fifty and ſixty Boats are detained for this Purpoſe.

Copenhagen, April 5. A Placard, dated March 18, 1746, under the Seal of the Chamber of Finances, is juſt come from the Preſs, declaring the Royal Reſolution to abate the Impoſition of One per Cent. formerly laid upon all Manufactures exported from hence, for the Encouragement of thoſe who can find Means to vend abroad any Goods or Merchandize made in Denmark, excepting only wrought Silver, which is ſtill to pay its peculiar Tax of Six per Cent. upon Exportation. Young Count Danneskiold is appointed Commander in Chief of the three Ships deſign'd for the Mediterranean.

Hague, April 12. Accounts from Italy continue favourable. Count Brown, after ſome advantageous Skirmiſhes, has made himſelf Maſter of Guaſtalla, and was advanced, according to the freſheſt Advices, very near to Parma. The Spaniards aſſemble themſelves between Placentia and Tortona, and ſeem in a Manner to have broke off all Concert with the French, who are retreated into the Genoeſe State, and to the very Suburbs of the Capital, Part of them laying along the Coaſt at Pietro di Arena. The French in this Neighbourhood, by our laſt Advices, are not yet in Motion.

Hague, April 12. We have Advice from Port L'Orient, dated the 25th of laſt Month N. S. That upon the 24th, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, a dreadful Fire broke out in three different Parts in the Office of Stores there, which communicated itſelf to the great Magazine belonging to the French Eaſt India Company, and notwithſtanding all poſſible Methods were made Uſe of to extinguiſh it, entirely conſumed the ſame: That ſome Quantities of combuſtible Matters, ſuch as Pitch and Tar, Brimſtone, Candles, Roſin, Aqua Vitæ, &c. had been taken out of it in Time; but that out of 50,000 Fire Arms, only between 4 and 500 had been ſaved: That in the ſaid Magazine there were above 30,000 new Regimentals for Soldiers, with proportionable Quantities of all Sorts of Ammunition; great Quantities of Woollen Cloth for the Uſe of the private Men and Officers; about 150,000 Pair of Shoes; great Quantities of Teas, Coffee, Spices, Druggs,

[Price Two-Pence.]

Druggs, &c. of the Whole of which not one tenth Part had eſcaped the Flames; ſo that the Damage amounted to above 4,000,000 of Livres: That the Squadrons from St. Malo, Morlaix, Rochefort, Rochelle and Port Louis, had been expected at Port L'Orient for ſome Days before this Fire happened, in order to take in what they wanted, this being the general Magazine; and that the Office Keepers had been taken into Cuſtody, and a very ſtrict Enquiry ſet on Foot in order to find out how the Fire began.

Helvoetſluys, April 12. The Tranſports, with the Dutch Troops from Scotland, arrived this Afternoon at Helvoetſluys, and are going up to Willemſtadt.

Dunkeld, March 27. On the News of the Rebels endeavouring to force the Caſtle of Blair, the two Heſſian Battalions, that were left at Sterling, came forward to Creif on the 19th: The 24th the four Battalions at Perth marched, and incamped that Night at Nairn Houſe, about half Way hither. The 25th, 600 Men marched to this Place. The 26th the reſt marched from Nairn, and there are now three Regiments here, and the two from Crief will be encamped this Day at the Bridge of the Tay.

Whitehall, April 5.

By an Expreſs which arrived this Day at Noon from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, we have the following Advices.

Aberdeen, March 31. The continued ill Weather we have had here for this Month, has raiſed the Waters of the Spey ſo high, that the Army ſtill remains here; but his Royal Highneſs propoſes to march as ſoon as poſſible. The Rebels are endeavouring to embark their Lowlanders, and force them to paſs the Murray Frith into Sutherland. Two Hundred of Stonywood's Men, whom they were attempting to embark at Findern, deſerted from them. Several Deſerters confirm the Intelligence which had been received, that the Rebel Army are in great Want of Money, having had no Pay for theſe laſt ſeven Days.

Two Days ago a Party of the Rebels came to the Earl of Finlater's Houſe at Culen, with an Order from the Pretender's Son, to burn the Houſe, unleſs his Steward and Tenants immediately paid the Ceſs and Levy that they demanded. A Body of the Heſſian Troops under the Command of his Serene Highneſs Prince Frederick of Heſſe were at Dunkeld on the 27th Inſtant, from whence they were to purſue their March in order to relieve the Caſtle of Blair.

There are no certain Accounts relating to Fort William.
